Dear Rowan Graduate,

Congratulations on your graduation! You've worked hard to get to this point in your life. On behalf of the Rowan University Alumni Association, it is a pleasure and a privilege to welcome you into the Rowan University alumni community.

Since its founding, the Rowan University Alumni Association has strived to keep alumni connected—to each other and to their alma mater. The Rowan University community extends well beyond the campus. As an alumnus you are now part of a global network of more than 62,500 Rowan alumni, many of who continue to be engaged in the life of the University.

The Alumni Association provides a variety of special events, alumni services and programs that touch all areas of the institution to encourage a lasting and positive relationship between the University and its graduates. The Association's events are built around a variety of University academic, cultural and athletic activities. By attending them, you will be able to meet alumni, build your professional network and grow your Rowan spirit.

The University's alumni continue to contribute to the path of success for Rowan and its past, present and future alumni. Whether it's through our LinkedIn page, Facebook group or our Online Community, I encourage you to use our online social and professional networks to connect with fellow Alumni Association members.

We invite you to stay connected! Sincerely,

Robert Zazzali Associate Provost

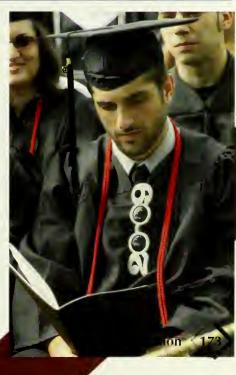

I would like to say thank you to everyone who assisted in creating this year's book. Ed Ziegler, thank you so much for being a supportive and great advisor. Emmy and Frank, thanks for helping me with any issues that came along this year. To my co-editor, Jill, thanks for being there when I was freaking out and for helping me get through everything along the way. This has been a challenge, but we did our best to bring Rowan University another year in print using photo journalism. As a staff, we tried to capture a snapshot of what went on during the year.

I would like to give a special thanks to the Alumni Association. They helped pay for the extra books and pages to make this yearbook available to the senior class. The yearbook would once again like to greatly thank you.

To all the seniors: we came here four years ago for some maybe five, as unknowing naïve freshman. While at Rowan, we journeyed from youth with not a care in the world into adulthood with maturity and are now ready for a career. As this chapter in our life comes to a close, we walk away with knowledge, growth and friends that will last a lifetime. If there is one thing we can take away from Rowan University besides a great education, it is experiences and memories that will last long after our bills are paid. I know as we leave for the "real world", it may seem scary but we are ready.

Class of 2010, I wish you good luck in what you do, enjoy life and all it has to offer. Thanks for making my past four years at Rowan the best four years of my life so far. More is yet to come...

Thank you, Daniel Szymanski Editor-in-Chief

Dear L'Tanya,

We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Congratulations on a job well done. Be proud of what you have achieved. April 2001 when you became sick again, your life's journey took a turn. In those years you have been through many heartaches, and disappointments, but you have triumphed over them. We know that no matter what comes your way, you will continue to be victorious. We are proud of the strong-willed, independent woman you have become. With your courage, strength, passion, and playful nature, you are a special lady. May God bless you and keep you throughout your life's journeys. May the best things in life come to you and may God continue to bless you and direct your path in life. Try to remember not to be afraid, most of what we fear never happens.

On this day, May 14, 2010, celebrate your accomplishments. We pray that you will be graced with every blessing under the sun, moon and stars. Unwrap today and claim every glorious moment, they belong to you. We are so proud of you and so proud that you are our daughter.

God Bless & Love

Always, Mom & Dad
